

The Holbrook Argus.

VOL. XIV.

HOLBROOK, NAVAJO CO., TUESDAY, MAY 25, 1909.

No. 7

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

No alum, no lime phosphates

As every housekeeper can understand, burnt alum and sulphuric acid—the ingredients of all alum and alum-phosphate powders—must carry to the food acids injurious to health.

Read the label. Avoid the alum powders

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brownell left Saturday morning for Needles, Cal., where they will spend a sixty days leave of absence, during which time Mr. Brownell will look after his mining interests in the Dunkirk Mining Company's district. Mr. Brownell is relieved here by E. J. Nordyke, of Williams.

Treasurer Ambrosio Candelaria, of Apache County, who has been on an extended vacation in Southern California, arrived here Monday and left immediately for St. Johns. Mr. Candelaria is also Assistant Cashier of the Apache County Bank and Trust Company.

J. A. Root and family, of Adamana, were in Holbrook Saturday. They started for here in Charles Day's automobile, but broke down about a mile from Carrizo and availed themselves of a ride in on the local freight.

The postoffice department has again advertised for bids to carry the mail from here to Heber once a week. This is about the third time that like bids have been rejected, the reasons therefore being unknown.

Earl Mahan, batteryman for the Western Union Telegraph company, hied himself to Holbrook last Sunday, where he was united in marriage on the same day to Miss Ethel Jolly of Flagstaff—Flagstaff Gem.

Colonel W. H. Pope, chief quartermaster of the Department of Colorado, arrived here Sunday from his headquarters in Denver and left for Fort Apache, where he goes on a trip of inspection.

Mrs. James Scott and daughter May, arrived here from their home in Los Angeles Friday. They were met here by Mr. Scott and all left for their summer home at Pinedale Friday afternoon.

Round-up outfits from the Puerco and Winslow arrived here this week, having nearly completed their work. A train-load of cattle were shipped Sunday from the local stock yards.

Mr. and Mrs. Daum arrived here this week from Kansas to make Holbrook their future home, having taken up their residence in the Adamson house. Both are well known here.

Willie and Eddie, the sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Woods, have this week been seriously ill, but at present are rapidly recovering. Dr. Brown has been in attendance.

Rosalio Candelaria, one of Apache County's foremost sheepmen, was here Monday from Concho on his way to California where he expects to remain for some time.

Erastus Wakefield, section foreman at West Yards, passed thru Holbrook Tuesday on his way to Taylor, where he will spend a vacation with his parents and other relatives.

Deputy County Assessor Assessor Wm. A. Parr, of Winslow, was up from the metropolis Thursday on business connected with his office.

H. W. Hopew, of Pinedale, was in Holbrook a couple of days this week on a business trip.

The editor acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the Flagstaff Normal on Thursday evening June third.

Mrs. M. A. Crouse, wife of our postmaster, accompanied by her son, arrived here Monday evening, to make Holbrook their future home.

Mrs. W. H. Clark, proprietor of Holbrook's popular hotel, was in Winslow a few days this week having dental work done.

George Wrench, John Conner and Andy Boyer were up from St. Joseph Sunday to look after their interests here.

Mrs. E. H. Bargman and little daughter, Marguerite, came up from Winslow Sunday to spend a few days visiting with friends.

Adolf Schuster left for Los Angeles this week to spend the summer with his family.

Banker F. W. Nelson came down from St. Johns this week and left for Winslow to spend a few days on business.

Division Engineer E. E. Ball, of Winslow, visited the County Seat Tuesday on railroad business connected with his department.

Mrs. D. H. Penrod and son passed through here Saturday on her way home from Winslow where she has been visiting her parents.

Julius Wetzler left for Los Angeles Saturday morning to be gone about a week on business.

T. F. Tucker came in from Denver this week to look after his stock interests.

H. E. Cheney, of Pinedale, was in Holbrook Tuesday, returned home the next day.

Miss Bensen, of Adamana, visited in Holbrook this week.

A. & B. SCHUSTER

Holbrook St. Johns Whiteriver

Just received a full line of Studebaker Wagons, Buckboards, Buggies, Carriages, which we are selling at reasonable prices on the installment plan or for cash.

Write or call for full description, prices, terms, etc

Also can now show for the first time
The Shuttler Roller Bearing Wagon

both with regular and two and one-half inch tires, can haul one-half more load without more team.

MAIL ORDERS RECEIVE SPECIAL ATTENTION